PUBLIC NOTICE

Further to the additional Public Health Restrictions applicable in Ireland under Level 5 of The Framework for Restrictive Measures in Response to COVID-19, this is to notify that effective Tuesday , 12th January, 2021, the Embassy of Nigeria Dublin will remain closed until further notice.

Consequently, all Consular and Immigration matters has been suspended until further notice. This includes issuance of Visa and Emergency Travel Certificate etc. This pro-active measure is to limit exposure of both applicants and staff of the Embassy to covid-19 under the Level 5 restrictions.

Please note that all earlier scheduled appointments falling due during this lock down are regrettably canceled accordingly and such applicants MUST re-apply for a new date when the Embassy resumes.

However, in case of emergency, the Embassy can only be reached via this email address: enquiries@nigerianembassydublin.org .

Mission regrets any inconvenience this may cause.

Thank you.
